ADDITIONAL BONDING TERMS:

1. A defendant charged with battery or domestic violence shall have no contact, directly or indirectly with the alleged victim(s).
2. A defendant charged with battery, regardless of the class, shall remain in jail for 48 hours following arrest before being eligible for release on bail.
3. $10,000 shall be added to a defendant's bond if charged with using a deadly weapon.
4. $10,000 shall be added to a defendant's bond if charged with manufacturing any controlled substance.
5. For a defendant charged as a habitual violator (excluding a habitual traffic violator), there shall be an additional bond equal to the bond for the highest class felony charged against the defendant.
6. For a defendant charged as a habitual substance abuser, there shall be a $5,000 corporate security bond required in addition to any bond set under this schedule.

7. Upon arrest any defendant already on terms of probation or parole is subject pursuant to statute to a detention hold for fifteen days before being released on bail. In order to provide the county prosecutor with sufficient opportunity to request a probation hold, the Miami County sheriff shall hold the defendant in custody until the defendant's first court appearance.

8. Except as augmented under these additional bonding terms, a defendant's bail shall be determined by adding the bonds for each criminal charge then pending against the defendant.

Effective January 1, 2009.
